REPORT
SEMINAR ON JUDICIARY PREPARATION

A lecture was organized by the Dept. of Laws, MM(DU), Mullana on 12th March, 2019, in the seminar hall focusing on informing the aspirants of the judicial services examination.

The speaker in the seminar was Ms. Pallavi from Judiciary Coaching Center, Chandigarh. Before the elaborate discussion about the judicial services examination, she explained the various professions and law career options to the student after graduation in law. Students from fourth and fifth year B.A.LL.B. (5 Year Integrated Course) attended the sessions at the Seminar Hall, Department of Law.

The session was an interactive and informative one. Students were in detail informed about the various aspects of the competitive examinations.

Ms. Pallavi, explained the curriculum, major areas of focus, virtues required, difficulties and their solutions to crack the examination.

A separate session was also held for the students of final year (10th semester) who are on the verge of being exposed to cut throat competition in the wide field of law. These students were given professional tips and mantras to help them make up their minds and clarify their confusions and address their concerns.

She shared her own experiences which made the students sensitive towards the laborious journey. Students were keen to listen to her words and questioned about various topics.

Students inquired about the:

- Medium of education
- Interview process
- Amount of labour and time to be put in

The session went on for 2 hours and everybody was quite inspired by the seminar so held. Prof.(Dr.) Bindu Jindal, Dean, faculty members and all the students wished her best for her future. 83 number of students attended the programme.
